9. UPDATE OF THE LITIGATION FUND COMMITTEE

   Mr. Greg Smith, Chairman of Fund Committee, meet with other committee board members and gave report. Galveston has been spending a total of 900,000 on litigation and it's a small district and has heavy industrial. The litigation fund that the district is requesting is 500,000 but the board does not want to move forward unless the entities agree to the funding. Another question that was asked was is if funding is legal and Mr. Wheat reported that Governmental entities have been put on notice to raise standards on their account principles according to GA-1040 monies can be set aside as committee contemplates in a fund and have that money designated for the purpose necessaries and it will carry over from year to year. Committee has not made a decision on the litigation fund recommendation.

10. TAXPAYER LIAISON OFFICER'S REPORT

   Update on ARB members Judge Longoria administrative judge completed assignment of Moving two auxiliary members to the regular ARB members and the judge vetted from ten applications and chose four to be auxiliary members so that ARB will be able to have four panels. There were 979 heard protests and 822 were settled the difference is a result of a signed agreement between the taxpayer and the district appraiser. ARB surveys 18 were completed.

Ramiro "Ronnie" Canales, Chief Appraiser
11. CHIEF APPRAISER'S REPORT

Update on security no problems due to the officers that have done an excellent job. ARB status update 23,000 accounts have come through the district. ARB members and staff have been working late and doing a great job. Sandra Garcia, Manager of Administration explained to the board TCDRS suffered a loss due to the oil prices and that and that we will not be fully funded in five years as anticipated and will take longer. TAAO conference will be held in Galveston and if any board members want to attend to let the district know.
